Mark T., Event Organizer

Q: What types of videos can you edit?

A: We can edit a wide variety of videos, including reels, TikTok videos, vlogs, tutorials, courses, social media content, commercials, and more.

Q: What is the turnaround time for video editing?

A: Turnaround times vary depending on the length and complexity of the video. Short-form videos (<90s) can be completed in one day, while long-form videos (up to 60 minutes) may take up to five days.

Q: How do I submit my video projects?

A: You can submit your video projects through our customer portal. We will provide you with a link to Frame.io for reviewing the videos.

Q: What software do you use for video editing?

A: We exclusively use Adobe Premiere Pro, After Effects, Adobe Photoshop and Adobe Illustrator to ensure the highest quality of editing work,

Q: Can I schedule a call to discuss my project?

A: Yes, you can schedule a Zoom call via our website to discuss your video editing needs.

Q: How do you handle large video files?

A: You can send us up to 40 GB of raw video files. If your files are larger than 40 GB, we can schedule a call to discuss the project workflow.

Q: What Kind of Work Can I Request?

A: Basically, any video editing can be done in Premiere Pro. We don't create custom motion graphics or animation characters, but use design templates for common animation elements like intros, end cards, and lower thirds of the video footage. Submit your storyboard, and we can help with animation, add music, do color grading, special effects, and more.
